

Dairy Ingredients

FSL's Dairy Unit is empowered by a team of technical and commercial personnel who can offer customized solutions from a wide range of value-added ingredients and dairy commodities sourced from the finest of manufacturers across the globe.

Combined with the expertise of our technical managers and the extensive knowledge base of our world-renowned principals, we are able to address all of our customers' technical queries and assist with new product development, conducting trials and troubleshooting within our application lab.

We endeavor to keep our customers informed of new ingredients, trends and innovations within the global dairy sector and regularly host innovation days to present ideas and solutions that we believe would add value to their business.
